

SIDE BAR GRAPHIC

Climate Warming is just the tip of OURICEBERG!

NASA Hubble Space Telescope
searching the heavens for life and water.

We are spending many billions on space exploration in search for water and life while wholesale destruction of life and finite life-sustaining natural capacity occurs today at a rate and speed unprecedented in 65 million years. There's a great need today to do first things first, like protecting life and water on EARTH first where it MATTERS most.

https://www.nasa.gov/mission_pages/hubble/story/index.html